

DUPĂ GARD

PERMACULTURE
CAMPFIRE

16.-18. AUGUST 2024

THE MISSION

Started as a spontaneous gathering of permaculture enthusiasts last year, we have spared no expense and effort for this year to offer you a very special spectacle. The aim is to connect the permaculture community of Romania with the German-speaking (and beyond) community.

Workshops on the topic of forest gardens (with Reinhard Engelhart from Austria) and wild herbs (Cristina Colis) offer you the opportunity to dive deeper into these topics, while a colorful supporting program around mindfulness & yoga offers a good balance. Live music is listened to around the evening campfire, while the magnificent sky over the Carpathian Mountains uniquely sets the scene for the meteor shower of the Perseids.

THE VENUE

Dupa Gard is an expanding Permaculture project in the Carpathian Mountains. Founded in 2016 in the Aries Valley, its aim is to promote local culture and find a regenerative future for this region with its abundant past. It currently consists of two small food forests, a permaculture vegetable garden with greenhouse and a camping place.

Ioana and Andreas are the sites guardians, and will act as your hosts during this event. The fruits of the garden, the hospitality, and this places natural beauty want to offer an experience of pure abundance for all guests.

THE DETAILS

Outdoor shower with cold water available, composting toilets. Everyone brings their own food, a fire pit with a large pot is provided. Depending on availability, we top it off with fresh perma-vegetables from the garden. Please bring your own personal crockery. We recommend bringing sun and rain protection, as well as warm clothes for our cool Carpathian nights. If you want to take the opportunity for a hike in our ingenious mountain world on Monday: large water bottles, sun protection and sturdy hiking boots are mandatory.
